ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

WAIVER

In signing this document, the above referenced person is requesting to be enrolled in the Goodyear Police Department's Volunteers in Police Services (VIPS) You Are Not Alone (YANA) Program.

- As staffing permits, the VIPS will attempt to contact you by phone one day each week for the purpose of doing a by phone person check. Due to activity level, this contact is not guaranteed.
- As staffing permits and/or if determined, the VIPS and Goodyear Police Department may also conduct in person welfare checks at the address provided.
- Situations observed by any VIPS member or a Goodyear Police Officer in connection with your participation in the program that alludes to possible criminal conduct, abuse or neglect are subject to possible reporting to the Goodyear Police Department on-duty Sergeant.

The VIPS will not provide any medical assistance, service or advice; travel or transportation assistance; labor; or financial assistance or advice as part of the YANA program.

In consideration for acceptance in this voluntary, no cost, public service program, you hereby acknowledge and agree to do the following:

- Verify the accuracy of all information provided on this application;
- Provide updates to information contained on this application as changes occur;
- Provide prior notification to the VIPS by telephoning (623) - and speaking to a member of the VIPS or by leaving a recorded message, of the dates that you will not be in the residence to respond to telephone or in person welfare checks.

- To terminate participation in the YANA program, provide written notice to the VIPS;
- Due to your participation in the YANA program, the City of Goodyear, the Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS program, officers, employees and volunteers of the City may be provided a copy of your completed application. In submitting this application, you are authorizing the City of Goodyear, the Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS program, officers, employees and volunteers of the City to use, disclose, or discuss this information with the emergency contacts you have identified or any emergency medical personnel.
- Due to your participation in the YANA program, you are consenting to all aspects of the YANA service including, if necessary, forced entry into your residence to complete a welfare check, and summoning of emergency medical assistance. The City of Goodyear, the Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS, officials, employees and volunteers of the City shall not be responsible for any damage to your residence caused by such forced entrance. Likewise, the City of Goodyear, the Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS, officials, employees and volunteers of the City shall not be responsible for the cost of any emergency or subsequent medical care when emergency medical assistance is summoned by the VIPS or Goodyear Police Department.
- The Goodyear Police Department, may, in its sole discretion, terminate this service at any time.
- Technical problems, scheduling problems, human error, or other problems may result in a failure of the service at any time.
- The City of Goodyear, the Goodyear Police Department, and the VIPS do not represent, warrantee or guarantee that the YANA program will protect or preserve your health or welfare.

I, the undersigned, acknowledge and agree to hold harmless, indemnify and defend the City of Goodyear, Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS program, officers, elected officials, agents, volunteers, boards, departments, and employees of the City from and against any and all actions or causes of action occurring or arising as a result of the purpose described herein or any activities incidental thereto wherever or however the same may occur, including but not limited to claims of other parties claiming financial interest in your residence or estate, and I do release, waive, discharge and relinquish any action or cause of action, which may hereafter arise. It is the intention of the Applicant to exempt and relieve the City of Goodyear, Goodyear Police Department, the VIPS program, officers, elected officials, agents, volunteers, boards, departments and employees of the City from all liability for any and all damages or injury related to, arising out of and/or caused in connection with the above described program.
